WHEREAS, the deadline to file complaints objecting to the Debtors' discharge or dischargeability of certain debts is sixty days after the date first set for the meeting of creditors (the "Nondischargeability Deadline").

WHEREAS, the Court may, "for cause," extend the Nondischargeability Deadline. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4007(c); see also Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9006(b)(3).

WHEREAS, the Parties submitted a stipulation on October 14, 2022 (ECF Doc. # 1066), which the Court approved on November 7, 2022, extending the deadline for filing any complaint to object to dischargeability of debts under sections 523 and 1141(d)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code through and including April 18, 2023 (Docket No. 1296).

WHEREAS, to afford the FTC additional time to conduct its investigation and determine whether it may hold a claim that is not subject to discharge, the Parties have agreed to extend the Nondischargeability Deadline.

WHEREAS, the Parties now jointly submit this Second Stipulation and request the Court approve the below.

IT IS THEREFORE STIPULATED AND AGREED, AND UPON BANKRUPTCY COURT APPROVAL HEREOF, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The deadline for the FTC to file any complaint to object to dischargeability of debts under sections 523 and 1141(d)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code is hereby extended through and including May 15, 2023.

2. Neither this Second Stipulation nor any negotiations and writings in connection herewith will in any way be construed as or deemed to be evidence of, or an admission on behalf of any Party regarding, any claim or right that such Party may have against the other Party.

3. Neither this Second Stipulation, nor any terms contained herein, shall be offered as evidence in any legal or administrative proceeding among or between the Parties, other than as may be necessary: (a) to obtain approval of and to enforce this Second Stipulation or (b) to seek damages or injunctive relief in connection therewith.

4. Nothing in this Second Stipulation or the relief sought herein shall constitute or be deemed: (a) an allowance of administrative expense claims under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; (b) an assumption or rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (c) an admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against a Debtor entity under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (d) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's right to dispute any claim on any grounds whatsoever; (e) a promise or requirement to pay any claim; (f) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in the Second Stipulation or a finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim or other priority claim; (g) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' bankruptcy estates; (h) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any insurers', rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable nonbankruptcy law; or (i) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to this Second Stipulation are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens.

5. Each of the Parties to this Second Stipulation represents and warrants it is duly authorized to enter into and be bound by this Second Stipulation.

6. This Second Stipulation may be executed in identical counterparts, including by facsimile and/or electronic mail, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together constitute one and the same instrument.

7. This Second Stipulation represents the entire agreement by and between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and all prior understandings or agreements, if any, are merged into this Second Stipulation.

8. The Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to any disputes arising from or other actions to interpret, administer, or enforce the terms and provisions of this Second Stipulation, and the Parties hereby consent to such jurisdiction to resolve any disputes or controversies arising from or related to the implementation of this Second Stipulation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
